

Every test conducted by a party who DOES NOT STAND TO PROFIT from BPL Docket - 03 - 104 has shown that this would be nothing short of disastrous for virtually all radio reception to most Americans. I would suggest the FCC acts in the interest of the people and not in large business interests. Any action to the contrary will only further ensure the obsolescence of the FCC due to its failure to act in the public interest.